Dear Sir,

The box of coins you sent for appraisal received and we have carefully gone over same. The lot of worth $20, to us and if this is acceptable to you will send you check for the amount. If not send us 18c postage for the return of the coins and we will send them forward. Most of the coins are only good to redeem and the cents have some scarce dates they are not fine enough to be of much value.

We thank you for your confidence in us and shall await your reply.

Yours very truly,

Serey, Henry

Dear Sir,

Your letter received and we enclose herewith check for $20. to pay for the coins you sent us. We assure you it is all they are worth to us. Regarding the 1877 cent they do bring higher prices but the you in your lot is not fine enough to warrant a high price. We always try to give fair value for coins and again assure you we have allowed all they are worth counting a small profit.

thank you for sending them to us, we are,

Yours very truly,
